Customer acknowledges and agrees that Next Technik may use technical means, including a License Key to prevent Customer exceeding its maximum number of permitted Users.

1.2. Access to the Software Program. Customer acknowledges the Software Program is tightly integrated with, and embedded in, the NetSuite Cloud Service and is hosted within the NetSuite Hosting Environment. Accordingly:

(i) Customer must maintain an active subscription to the NetSuite Cloud Service for the duration of each applicable Service Period to access the Software Program.

(ii) Customer will not have any access to the Software Program if Customer's use of the NetSuite Cloud Service is suspended or terminates for any reason; in which case Customer will not have a claim against Next Technik for failure to provide the Services and remains liable for all fees applicable to the Services for the duration of the applicable Service Period.

4.3. Late Payments. Customer must pay a late charge for any failure to make any payment by the date required under the Agreement, calculated at a rate that is the lesser of 1.5% per month or the maximum rate permitted by law, from the date that the payment first becomes overdue, to the date that the payment is received by Next Technik, both dates inclusive.

10. Limitations of Liability.

10.1. IN NO EVENT WILL EITHER PARTY OR ITS AFFILIATES BE LIABLE FOR ANY INDIRECT, CONSEQUENTIAL, INCIDENTAL, SPECIAL, PUNITIVE, OR EXEMPLARY DAMAGES, OR ANY LOSS OF REVENUE, PROFITS (EXCLUDING FEES UNDER THIS AGREEMENT), SALES, DATA, DATA USE, GOODWILL, OR REPUTATION.

11. Indemnification.

11.1. If a third party makes a claim against either Customer or Next Technik ("Recipient" which may refer to Customer or Next Technik depending upon which party received the Material), that any information, design, specification, instruction, software, service, data, hardware, or material (collectively, "Material") furnished by either Customer or Next Technik ("Provider" which may refer to Customer or Next Technik depending on which party provided the Material) and used by the Recipient infringes the third party's intellectual property rights, the Provider, at the Provider's sole cost and expense, will defend the Recipient against the claim and indemnify the Recipient from the damages, liabilities, costs and expenses awarded by the court to the third party claiming infringement or the settlement agreed to by the Provider, if the Recipient does the following:

- (i) notifies the Provider promptly in writing, not later than 30 days after the Recipient receives notice of the claim (or sooner if required by applicable law);
- (ii) gives the Provider sole control of the defense and any settlement negotiations; and
- (iii) gives the Provider the information, authority and assistance the Provider needs to defend against or settle the claim.

11.2. If the Provider believes or it is determined that any of the Material may have violated a third party's intellectual property rights, the Provider may choose to either modify the Material to be non-infringing (while substantially preserving its utility or functionality) or obtain a license to allow for continued use, or if these alternatives are not commercially reasonable, the Provider may end the license for, and require return of, the applicable Material and refund any unused, prepaid fees the Recipient may have paid to the other party for such Material. If such return materially affects Next Technik's ability to meet obligations under the relevant order, then Next Technik may, upon 30 days prior written notice, terminate the order. If such Material is third party technology and the terms of the third party license do not allow us to terminate the license, then Next Technik may, upon 30 days prior written notice, end the Services associated with such Material and refund any unused, prepaid fees for such Services.

11.3. The Provider will not indemnify the Recipient if the Recipient (a) alters the Material or uses it outside the scope of use identified in the Provider's user or program documentation or the User Guides, or (b) uses a version of the Material which has been superseded, if the infringement claim could have been avoided by using an unaltered current version of the Material which was made available to the Recipient. The Provider will not indemnify the Recipient to the extent that an infringement claim is based upon any Material not furnished by the Provider. Next Technik will not indemnify Customer to the extent that an infringement claim is based on a Third Party Application or any Material from a third party portal or other external source that is accessible or made available to Customer within or by the Services (e.g., a social media post from a third party blog or forum, a third party Web page accessed via a hyperlink, marketing data from third party data providers, etc.).

11.4. Customer, at Customer's sole cost and expense, will defend Next Technik against the claim and indemnify Next Technik from the damages, liabilities, costs and expenses awarded by the court related to Customer Data or Customer's breach of its obligations under Section 3 hereto, if Next Technik does the following:

- (i) notifies Customer promptly in writing, not later than 30 days after Next Technik receives notice of the claim (or sooner if required by applicable law);
- (ii) gives Customer sole control of the defense and any settlement negotiations; and
- (iii) gives Customer the information, authority and assistance Customer needs to defend against or settle the claim.

11.5. This Section 11 provides the parties' exclusive remedy for any infringement claims or damages.

12. Governing Law and Jurisdiction. This Agreement is governed by the substantive and procedural laws of the State of California and each party agrees to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of, and venue in, the courts in San Francisco or Santa Clara counties in California in any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement. The Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act does not apply to this Agreement or to orders placed under it.

13. Export.

13.1. Export laws and regulations of the United States and any other relevant local export laws and regulations may apply to the Services. Such export laws govern use of the Services (including technical data) and any Services deliverables provided under this Agreement, and Customer and Next Technik each agree to comply with all such export laws and regulations (including "deemed export" and "deemed re-export" regulations). Customer agrees that no data, information, software programs and/or materials resulting from the Services (or direct product thereof) will be exported, directly or indirectly, in violation of these laws, or will be used for any purpose prohibited by these laws including, without limitation, nuclear, chemical, or biological weapons proliferation, or development of missile technology.

13.2. Customer acknowledges that the Services are designed with capabilities for Customer and Customer Users to access the Services without regard to geographic location and to transfer or otherwise move Customer Data between the Services and other locations such as User workstations. Customer is solely responsible for the authorization and management of User accounts across geographic locations, as well as export control and geographic transfer of Customer Data.

14. General Provisions.

14.1. Entire Agreement.

(i) This Agreement incorporates by reference all URL Terms (as applicable) and Estimate/Order Forms, and this Agreement, together with such referenced items, constitute the entire understanding between Customer and Next Technik and are intended to be the final and entire expression of their agreement. The parties expressly disclaim any reliance on any and all prior discussions, emails, RFP's and/or agreements between the parties. There are no other verbal agreements, representations, warranties undertakings or other agreements between the parties.

(ii) Under no circumstances will the terms, conditions or provisions of any purchase order, invoice or other administrative document issued by Customer in connection to this Agreement be deemed to modify, alter or expand the rights, duties or obligations of the parties under, or otherwise modify, this Agreement, regardless of any failure of Next Technik to object to such terms, provisions, or conditions. In the event of any inconsistencies between the terms of an Estimate/Order Form and the Agreement, the Estimate/Order Form shall take precedence.

(iii) The Agreement shall not be modified, or amended, except as expressly set forth herein, or in writing and signed or accepted electronically by the party against whom the modification, amendment or waiver is to be asserted, or by a properly executed Estimate/Order Form or Statement of Work.

14.2. Other General Provisions.

(i) This Agreement shall inure to benefit and bind the parties hereto, their successors and assigns, but neither party may assign this Agreement without written consent of the other, except that Next Technik may assign without consent to a related entity or the successor of all or substantially all of the assignor's business or assets to which this Agreement relates. There are no third-party beneficiaries to this Agreement.

(ii) This Agreement does not create any joint venture, partnership, agency, or employment relationship between the parties.

(iii) Next Technik's business partners and other third parties, including any third parties with which the Services have integrations or that are retained by Customer to provide consulting services, implementation services or applications that interact with the Services, are independent of Next Technik and are not Next Technik's agents. Next Technik is not liable for, bound by, or responsible for any problems with the Services or Customer Data arising due to any acts of any such business partner or third party, unless the business partner or third party is providing Services as Next Technik's subcontractor on an engagement ordered under this Agreement and, if so, then only to the same extent as Next Technik would be responsible for our resources under this Agreement.

(iv) If any provision is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be contrary to law, such provision shall be eliminated or limited to the minimum extent necessary so that this Agreement shall otherwise remain in full force and effect. A waiver of any breach under this Agreement should not constitute a waiver of any other breach or future breach.

(v) Force Majeure. Neither party shall be liable for loss, delay, nonperformance (including failure to meet the service level commitment but excluding payment obligations) to the extent resulting from any force majeure event, including, but not limited to, acts of God, strike, riot, fire, explosion, flood, earthquake, natural disaster, terrorism, act of war, civil unrest, criminal acts of third parties, failure of the Internet, governmental acts or orders or restrictions, failure of suppliers, labor stoppage or dispute (other than those involving Next Technik's employees), or shortage of materials, provided that such party uses reasonable efforts, under the circumstances, to notify the other party of the circumstances causing the delay and to resume performance as soon as possible and any delivery date shall be extended accordingly.

(vi) Non-impediment. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as precluding or limiting in any way the right of Next Technik to provide consulting, development, or other services of any kind to any individual or entity (including without limitation performing services or developing materials which are similar to and/or competitive with the Professional Services and/or deliverables hereunder).

(vii) Audit. Upon 45 days written notice and no more than once every 12 months, Next Technik may audit Customer's use of the Services to ensure Customer's use of the Services is in compliance with the terms of the applicable Estimate/Order Form and this Agreement. Any such audit shall not unreasonably interfere with Customer's normal business operations. Customer agrees to cooperate with Next Technik's audit and to provide reasonable assistance and access to information reasonably requested by Next Technik. The performance of the audit and non-public data obtained during the audit (including findings or reports that result from the audit) shall be subject to the provisions of Section 8 (Confidentiality) of this Agreement. If the audit identifies non-compliance, Customer agrees to remedy (which may include, without limitation, the payment of any fees for additional Services) such non-compliance within 30 days of written notification of that non-compliance. Customer agrees that Next Technik shall not be responsible for any of Customer's costs incurred in cooperating with the audit.

(viii) The Section headings used in this Agreement are included for reference purposes only and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of this Agreement in any way. Provisions that survive termination or expiration of this Agreement are those relating to limitation of liability, indemnification, payment and others which by their nature are intended to survive. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts and/or by facsimile or electronic signature and if so executed shall be equally binding as an original copy of this Agreement executed in ink by both parties.
